AnimateTV:
20 Years of Experimental Animation
from the UK

An essential limited edition DVD featuring 23 landmark films commissioned through the groundbreaking AnimateTV project.

Release date: 13 September 2010
Available from: animateprojects.org/shop

Launch screening: 28 August 2010, London
International Animation Festival

The AnimateTV DVD draws together a unique selection of films to represent the incredible range of experimental practice accomplished in the UK in the past 20 years. The titles were chosen from over 100 innovative and challenging films made by British artists and animators for the enduring AnimateTV project.

The DVD features acclaimed works by key figures in British artists' animation, including Phil Mulloy, Paul Bush, Sarah Cox, Tim Macmillan, Run Wrake, Petra Freeman, Ruth Lingford, Jonathan Hodgson, AL and AL, Keith Piper, Andrew Kötting, Semiconductor, Chris Shepherd, David Shrigley, Stephen Irwin and Simon Faithfull.

The illustrated booklet features essays by Adam Pugh, former Director of the Aurora Festival Norwich and Dick Arnall, former producer of the AnimateTV project.

The AnimateTV DVD is an essential collection for anyone interested in radical animation, innovative technique, and animation as a contemporary art practice.

About AnimateTV:

AnimateTV was established in 1990 as a unique collaboration between Arts Council England and Channel 4 to support independent production of experimental and artists' work, selecting projects through an annual open call for proposals. At animateprojects.org there is additional background information, materials and essays on the AnimateTV films, and video interviews with some of the makers.

About Animate Projects:

Animate Projects commissions and produces AnimateTV and other projects for broadcast, gallery, cinema and digital exhibition that explore the relationship between art and animation. Animate Projects is funded by the National Lottery through Arts Council England. Visit us at animateprojects.org
